

Kevin Briscoe

Executive Manager
CFO Selections, LLC

Kevin Briscoe is the Executive Manager of CFO Selections, responsible for establishing and implementing goals and strategies for the firm. He also serves as Practice Manager of our western Washington consulting team, which he has led since 2013. His professional career includes over 25 years in finance, accounting, and operations in publicly traded corporate and small closely held settings. Before joining CFOS in 2007, Kevin was part owner of a successful lighting representative business. He has also served as a financial member of South End Equities, where he was responsible for the purchase and management of over $6M of commercial real estate. Prior experience includes roles as VP Finance and Operations for Workforce Technologies and Director of Accounting for SYSCO Food Services of Seattle. His extensive experience in business strategy, management, and operations makes him a great leader for the firm.
